
DELAWARE VALLEY ARTS ALLIANCE

Delaware Valley Arts Alliance, the Arts Council for Sullivan County, was founded in 1976. Its purpose is to build collaborations that advance the arts in Sullivan County and the Upper Delaware Valley, to support high quality arts and cultural programs and to provide services to individual artists, arts organizations and the area's arts industry. Membership is open to all who are interested in supporting cultural development, and is vital to DVAA's ability to present programs and services. To join, send $50 ($45 for artists or senior citizens) along with your name, address and phone number to: DVAA, P.O. Box 170, Narrowsburg, NY 12764. Your contribution is tax-deductible. For further information call (845) 252-7576 or visit www.ArtsAllianceSite.org.

Quick & Gritty Video Slam

Sunday, June 15 @ 12 p.m.

Tusten Theatre
210 Bridge St, Narrowsburg, NY

Artists of all skill levels are encouraged to make their own 3-minute “Quick and Gritty” digital movie during the DIGIT weekend. Whether documentary, experimental, narrative, or any other format, this is your chance to express your view of the area and to win $500. Other prizes will also be awarded.

GUIDELINES

All projects must be shot within the Hamlet of Narrowsburg, between June 13 and 15, 2007. Projects must be 3 minutes or less and submitted on DVD by 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 15 at the Tusten Theatre, 210 Bridge Street, Narrowsburg.

VIDEO SLAM

All submitted projects meeting the above guidelines will be screened as part of the “Quick and Gritty” Video Slam beginning at 12 p.m. on Sunday, June 15 at the Tusten Theatre, 210 Bridge Street, Narrowsburg. A panel of judges will award a $500 grand prize.

QUESTIONS

If you have questions about the guidelines, or you need help finding anything from a location to inspiration, contact the DIGIT presenters at Delaware Valley Arts Alliance at (845) 252-7576.

TimeTravelBackto the20thCentury:

Echoes of John Cage and Charles Ives paddling their canoe up stream...

An interactive concert led by composer Tom Holmes

Saturday, June 14 @ 7 p.m.

Narrowsburg's Main Street

Tom Holmes performed under the Narrowsburg Bridge during DIGIT 2007

found sound objects, hand percussion, radios, CD players, a piano, synthesizer, car horns, voice, and the kitchen sink.

Groups of musicians will be posted along Main Street in Narrowsburg and informed by directions written on cards as to what their next objective will be. Chance events, improvisation, and random acts of musical insight should make for a happening not seen or heard since Cage's monumental 4:33'.

Get ready to see the future through the lens of the mid 20th century as Cage and Ives understood it.

This interactive concert, led by Tom Holmes, will consist of many non-musicians participating in a chance event. All present at the DIGIT 2008 festival are welcome to contribute. Feel free to bring your own instrument, boom box, or other noise maker.

The piece will utilize

DIGIT Digital Media Exposition features screenings of the best and brightest artists working in digital media today. In genres ranging from experimental to documentary, animation to narrative, these artists employ new technology such as digital cameras, phones, and sound equipment, as a painter would employ a brush and canvas, to explore exciting new varieties of expression.

DIGIT celebrates creative and technical excellence and experimentation among all artists working with digital tools.
